

LYLE L. MILLER SCHOLARSHIP

The applicant must be currently enrolled in the Counselor Education Department master's degree program at the University of Wyoming

Dr. Lyle L. Miller established this Fellowship in 1977 with his own funds to offer additional financial support for Counselor Education students. This Fellowship is based on the criterion that the student will be working on a research assignment with the guidance of a department faculty member. One hundred hours of research activity that relates to the enrichment, enhancement or evaluation of the departmental program is required.

This annual award of $300.00 will be presented at the College of Education Awards Banquet.

To apply please submit the Lyle L. Miller Scholarship. Your completed application and curriculum vita is due in the Department of Counselor Education by the 17th of April.
